

Poulton Park Golf Club Limited

Social Media Policy

Purpose

This policy sets out Poulton Park Golf Club's expectations on the use of social media websites.

Objectives

To ensure Poulton Park Golf Club members understand the guiding principles and terms of use of social media websites and to encourage the development of an understanding of both the benefits and constraints in using social media.

Guiding Principle

When any individual identifies their association with Poulton Park Golf Club they are expected to behave appropriately, in ways that are consistent with Poulton Park Golf Club values and policies.

Background

The Internet provides many opportunities to communicate with other individuals, other Members and the community. Social media websites provide the opportunity for Members to promote the community of Members and Club activities. Members should be aware that the use of these websites can also be abused and potentially damage the reputation of Poulton Park Golf Club and in extreme cases result in legal proceedings.

The web is not anonymous. Users of social media websites should assume that any comments made by them will be able to be traced back to them as individuals or to the organization in general. When using social websites, Members need to make a clear distinction between their activities as a Member and their personal activities undertaken outside of Poulton Park Golf Club.

The Internet is a fast moving technology and it is impossible to cover all circumstances. This policy aims to provide guiding principles to help to exercise good judgment as well as providing specific detail on behaviour that must not be undertaken.

Scope

This policy covers all forms of social media and applies to Poulton Park Golf Club Members.

It does not apply to personal use of social media websites when the Member, is-

- not identifiable as a Member of Poulton Park Golf Club;
- Makes no reference to Poulton Park Golf Club; or
- issues relating to Poulton Park Golf Club

Consideration towards other Members when using Social Networking sites

Social media websites allow photographs, videos and comments to be shared with other users. It is not appropriate to share club-related information in unauthorized social media forums without approval from a Director of the Club. Members must be considerate to other Members, Staff and Club and must remove information about a Member or the Club when requested by the Member or the Club

Under no circumstance should offensive comments be made about Poulton Park Golf Club, Members and Staff online. This is deemed to be a disciplinary matter.

Members must not upload (or even take) photographs of junior members, without first obtaining the permission of the parents. (Part of the Club's Child protection policy. Only club assessed persons shall be allowed to take photographs of Children on behalf of the Club)

Friends and Connections

Members are encouraged to use their best judgment in deciding if or at what level they want to connect with other Members on social media websites. Poulton Park Golf Club will support Member decisions to keep online relationships strictly professional.

Breach of Policy

A breach of this policy may result in disciplinary action as outlined by the Club's Member Disciplinary Policy.
